Investor Program

Data & Analytics Retreat

This annual event assembles vendor executives, leading analysts and investors to discuss market trends and strategy.

You are cordially invited to attend the tenth annual Data & Analytics Retreat at Burg Crass in Eltville, Germany which will be organized by the Business Application Research Center (BARC). This invitation-only event brings together international leading experts, vendors, investors and industry analysts in an exclusive yet relaxed setting in Germany to discuss and debate the most critical topics in the Business Intelligence, Analytics and Data Management space.

Each day of the program provides a balance of expert-led content and discussion, networking time, and one-on-one time with vendors & analysts to make this a valuable business opportunity.

We look forward to welcoming you back on site in October 2021 with a safe hygiene and testing concept (where necessary) face-to-face.

Throughout the event you will have the opportunity to:

- Understand the driving forces and investment opportunities in the Data and Analytics market
- Exchange with founders, investors and vendor executives around the world
- Receive valuable information on the structure and direction of your portfolio

Speakers

- Dr. Carsten Bange, BARC
- Donald Farmer, TreeHive Strategy
- Mike Ferguson, Intelligent Business Strategies
- Dr. Christian Fuchs, BARC
- Stefan Sexl, BARC
- and others

Location

The Data and Analytics Retreat will be held at Burg Schwarzenstein in the village of Geisenheim, situated in the lovely Rheingau, one of the finest wine regions in the world and only a short distance away from Frankfurt, Germany.
